

ALUMNI POLICY

Purpose

The policy aims to create and maintain ongoing links between the Alumni community of Damascus College and its three foundation schools; Sacred Heart College Ballarat East, St. Martin's in the Pines and St Paul's Technical College.

Scope

This policy applies to the Alumni of Damascus College, Sacred Heart College Ballarat East, St. Martin's in the Pines and St Paul's Technical College and any initiatives taken by the College or its Alumni to achieve the purpose stated above.

Definitions

Alumni of Damascus College is defined as past students and staff of Damascus College and its foundation colleges, Sacred Heart College Ballarat East, St. Martin's in the Pines and St Paul's Technical College.

Policy Statement

Damascus College will:

- create ongoing links between the College and the Alumni community;
- engage its Alumni through the provision of activities of interest to members;
- actively seek to involve its Alumni in the life of the College;
- recognise its Alumni for their contributions to the wider community, the College and its students;
- provide a means for its Alumni to provide support for the College;
- develop Alumni connections to the Damascus College Vision, the origins of the College and its Catholic tradition; and
- promote the benefits of Alumni membership to all current and past students.

Consequences

The consequences of this policy are that Damascus College will:

- maintain a comprehensive database of Alumni members;
- promote, support and maintain College archives;
- promote and maintain communication among the Alumni and between the Alumni and the College;
- provide the Alumni with regular information of scheduled events and activities;
- encourage and support reunions of Alumni;
- ensure that all activity advances a mutually beneficial link between Damascus College, its Alumni and the wider community to promote the name and reputation of the College; and
- provide resources to enact this policy.

Responsibilities
